

IMCTC Announce the Arrival of the Delegates of Republic of Chad to Its HQ

Riyadh, 14-9-2023

IMCTC announced today, Thursday, September 14, 2023, the arrival of the Delegates of the Republic of Chad at IMCTC, bringing the number of countries that have sent their Delegates to IMCTC headquarters to thirty-one.

IMCTC Secretary General, Maj. Gen. Mohammed bin Saeed Al-Moghedi, pointed out that the arrival of the Delegates of Republic of Chad to IMCTC headquarters to work together with their IMCTC fellow Delegates is a positive and welcome step. He further commended the Chadian government for sending their Delegates as part of the joint effort to counter terrorism and violent extremism. He concluded his remarks by wishing the Chadian Delegates every success in their mission, and appreciating the critical role attached to Member Countries' Delegates in accomplishing IMCTC's counter-terrorism strategic objectives and initiatives.

Maj. Gen. Al-Moghedi further added that the Republic of Chad with its multi religious, ethnic and cultural spectra as well as its important geographical location on the African continent would have a tremendous positive impact as a critical member of IMCTC.

It is worth noting that IMCTC comprises forty-two Member Countries that work together to coordinate, consolidate and step up counterterrorism efforts across ideology, communications, counter-terrorism financing, and military domains efficiently and effectively in partnership with friendly countries and international counterterrorism organizations.
