

IMCTC Secretary-General Receives Malaysia's Ambassador to Saudi Arabia

Riyadh -18-8-2020

The Islamic Military Counter Terrorism Coalition (IMCTC) Secretary-General, Maj. Gen. Mohammed bin Saeed Al-Moghedi, met today with the ambassador of Malaysia to the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, Mr. Abdul Razak Abdul Wahab, and his accompanying delegation at the IMCTC headquarters in Riyadh. During the meeting, the ambassador was provided with an overview of IMCTC's efforts on counterterrorism in the four domains of action (ideology, communications, counter terrorism financing and military) as well as its role in coordinating member countries efforts in this respect.

Maj. Gen. Al-Moghedi explained that IMCTC is a pan-Islamic alliance that strives to strengthen and maximize cooperation among its member countries based on the values of legitimacy, autonomy, coordination and participation and making sure that all IMCTC actions and efforts, in counterterrorism, are consistent with international law, rules and norms.

It worth noting that IMCTC comprises 41 countries working together to coordinate their efforts on the global war on violent extremism and terrorism and to join other international efforts aimed at maintaining international peace and security.
