

A Delegation from the UAE's National Defense collage visits IMCTC

Riyadh – 24/11/2021

The Secretary-General of the Islamic Military Counter-terrorism Coalition, Maj. Gen. Mohammed bin Saeed Al-Moghedi, received, at IMCTC headquarters in Riyadh, a delegation from the United Arab Emirates' National Defense College, led by Brig. Gen. Salem Saeed Al-Shamsi. IMCTC Secretary-General greeted and welcomed the visiting delegation, briefed them on IMCTC's mission and took them on a tour of IMCTC' premises, where they received a briefing in the situation room.

For his part, Brig. Gen. Al-Shamsi, the head of the delegation, made a statement in which he said; "we thank IMCTC for giving us this opportunity to familiarize us with this great organization." He went on to say; "on behalf of my colleagues; who represent the UAE's National Defense College, and myself, we look forward to continuing this cooperation and it is part of our College's mission to assess challenges and keep abreast of developments across all domains."

It is worth noting that part of the UAE National Defense College's mission is to prepare leaders intellectually, strategically, attract cadets from all UAE's military and civil sectors, as well preparing future leaders across various fields.
