

A number of Saudi Ambassadors visit IMCTC Headquarters

Riyadh, 30-06-2022

The Islamic Military Counter-Terrorism Coalition (IMCTC) received at its Headquarters, on Thursday, 30/06/2022, a group of recently appointed Saudi Ambassadors designated to serve in a number of countries. The ambassadors included, Abdulrahman Al-Harbi, Saudi Arabia's ambassador to the People's Republic of China, Saad Nasser Abu-Haimed, Ambassador to the Federal Democratic Republic of Nepal, Dr. Fahad bin Obaidallah Al-Humaidani, ambassador to the Federal Democratic Republic of Ethiopia, Khaled bin Ibrahim Al-Sallum, ambassador to the Republic of Chile, Mohammed bin Ismael Dahlawi, ambassador to the Socialist Republic of Vietnam. The visiting ambassadors were received by IMCTC Secretary-General, Maj. Gen. Mohammed bin Saeed Al-Moghedi.

The visiting ambassadors received a detailed briefing on IMCTC's efforts in countering terrorism, extremism, coordination of member countries' efforts to disrupt terrorist trends through ideology, communications, CTF and military initiatives, in addition to coordination and intensification of member countries' efforts in this regard. In the meantime, the delegation was updated on the latest developments concerning terrorist groups and incidents around the world and IMCTC's tools in monitoring and keeping track of such groups and attacks.

It is worth noting that the ambassadorial delegation visit to IMCTC headquarters comes in the framework of strengthening IMCTC's international relationships with the rest of the world and deepening international efforts across counter-terrorism efforts.
