

IMCTC Receives a Delegation of Students from the Command and Staff College

Riyadh, 28-5-2023

Today, Sunday 28/05/2023, IMCTC received a delegation of multinational students from the Saudi Armed Forces Command and Staff College. HE IMCTC Secretary-General, Maj. Gen. Mohammed bin Saeed Al-Moghedi welcomed the delegation, and stressed the importance of familiarizing with IMCTC's great efforts to counter all forms and shapes of terrorism.

The visiting delegation was briefed on IMCTC's mission and its approach in addressing terrorism across the ideology, communications, counter-terrorist financing, and the military domains. The briefing also covered IMCTC's efforts to intensify its member countries' cooperation as well as the latest developments and updates regarding monitoring and tracking terrorist operations and groups around the world.

At the end of the visit, Maj. Gen. Al-Moghedi pointed out that IMCTC is founded on the noble principle of countering violence and confronting all extremist beliefs and ideologies. He concluded his remarks by adding that Saudi Arabia, the host country, has been extending, and still providing generous support to eradicate this abhorrent scourge of terrorism, because it believes that the stability and prosperity of nations occurs when societies are free of terrorist and extremist ideologies.
